

7th GRADE PARENT PROJECT (“Moving Up” Reception)

Parents of the 7th grade students traditionally host the reception for the 8th grade students and their families following the “Moving Up” ceremony. Our 8th Graders will move up to high school and we will say goodbye to them in a special way on Friday, June 2nd, 2023.

This reception is simple with homemade sweets and lemonade or punch as the refreshments. A few decorations and warm hospitality are all that is needed.

Would you like to volunteer to bake, serve, set-up, or clean-up? Just return this form to school and you will be contacted next spring.

B. ____ I have not yet completed VIRTUS training. I understand that VIRTUS training is mandatory for all adults volunteering at CCHS as well as throughout the Diocese of Wheeling - Charleston. I will complete this training as soon as possible and will notify a member of the PVA Steering Committee when I have done so. I understand that I will not be placed in any volunteer capacity at CCHS until I complete my VIRTUS training.
